BIO

I was born in Andalusia and grew up surrounded by words – I studied dramatic arts and Spanish language and literature, because text has always been at the heart of how I understand the world. I trained in Madrid with Fernando Piernas and Clara Cossials, and have since worked in theater and film. I'm equally comfortable in physical comedy and classical dramatic work. I'm fluent in English, a contralto, and I have experience in stage combat and fencing.
