Profile

A dedicated and versatile actor with a passion for both screen and stage performances. Recently featured in the film Muy Lejos alongside renowned Spanish actors Mario Casas and Raúl Prieto, playing the role of the main character's brother. Known for my strong on-screen presence and ability to bring a range of emotions to my characters. I am also an accomplished musician with skills in ukulele, and an avid sports enthusiast, with experience in padel, football and karate. Eager to continue expanding my career in film, television, and advertising, with a focus on diverse roles that challenge and inspire me.
