PROFILE

Emerging actor with a strong interest in film, character-driven storytelling and psychologically complex roles. My creative background includes photography production, runway modelling and developing independent visual projects. I am keen to gain on-set experience and develop my work as a performer. Currently based in Brisbane and relocating to London in December 2026.

PERFORMANCE & CREATIVE EXPERIENCE

Independent Acting Sample — 2026

Recorded an original on-camera monologue exploring ambition, uncertainty and self-perception. Acting sample available on my enCAST profile.

Runway Model — Whitehouse Institute of Design | 2026

Selected to present student-designed garments in a live runway show. Took part in fittings, backstage preparation and the final presentation.

Production & Photography Assistant | 2026

Assisted on magazine shoots, supporting photography and interview production, preparing the shoot environment, helping with camera shots and behind-the-scenes work, and making on-set adjustments.

INDEPENDENT CREATIVE PRACTICE

Develop original projects exploring identity, atmosphere and visual storytelling through concept development, styling, photography and editorial presentation.

SKILLS

On-camera performance sample; visual storytelling and character interpretation; comfortable working in creative production environments; collaboration and communication; styling and photographic composition; Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and Illustrator.
